

ITIN-Friendly CDFI Banks & Loan Funds: Wyoming, California, New York & Texas

A State-by-State Guide to Community Development Lenders for ITIN-Only Business Owners

Prepared: June 4, 2026 Scope: US Treasury–certified CDFI banks and CDFI loan funds (plus a few closely-related mission lenders and CDFI credit unions) that are ITIN-friendly for business loans and lines of credit in Wyoming, California, New York, and Texas — with approval requirements for each. Wyoming is covered first and in the most depth, because it is one of the most CDFI-thin states in the country.

Read this first — two 2026 rules that change everything

1. SBA loans are now closed to ITIN-only owners (and even green-card holders). Effective ~March–April 2026 (SBA SOP 50 10 8 and Microloan SOP 52 00 B under Executive Order 14159), 100% of all owners must be US citizens or US nationals. This means any SBA-funded product — at any CDFI, bank, or nonprofit below — is off-limits to ITIN borrowers. ITIN-friendly lending must come from each lender's own (non-SBA) capital. Many CDFIs offer both; you simply route to the non-SBA product.
2. Executive Order 14406 (May 2026) directs banks/regulators to weigh immigration status in account opening and credit decisions and flags ITIN use by applicants lacking verified lawful status for enhanced due diligence. It doesn't ban ITIN credit, but may chill bank (not loan-fund) ITIN lending — which is one reason CDFI loan funds and mission credit unions are the more reliable path than banks for ITIN borrowers right now.

A note on "CDFI." A Community Development Financial Institution is a US Treasury–certified mission lender (bank, credit union, loan fund, or venture fund). CDFI loan funds are nonprofits and are by far the most ITIN-flexible — many use character/cash-flow underwriting with no minimum FICO. Verify any certification on the CDFI Fund list (cdfifund.gov) or OFN Locator (ofn.org/cdfi-locator).

PART 1 — WYOMING (the priority state)

The hard truth: Wyoming has essentially ONE Treasury-certified CDFI headquartered in the state — the Wind River Development Fund (a Native CDFI loan fund). There are no CDFI banks and no CDFI credit unions headquartered in Wyoming. So for an ITIN-only business owner, the realistic path is multi-state CDFIs that lend into Wyoming and explicitly accept an ITIN.

Myth-buster: A search-engine/AI summary may surface "Community Capital Wyoming" as a WY CDFI. Our research found no website, no CDFI Fund listing, and no independent record of such an organization — treat it as a fabrication and do not rely on it.

The Wyoming options, ranked

Lender	CDFI?	Serves WY	ITIN for business?	Amounts	Key approval requirements
DreamSpring best fit	Yes (loan fund)	Statewide (Cheyenne, Casper, Laramie)	Yes — explicit "SSN or ITIN"	Term $1k–$250k ; Power Line of Credit $1k–$50k	Flexible FICO; uncollateralized option <$20k if FICO 650+; no open bankruptcy / collections / past-due ; 18+; use the non-SBA products
Accion Opportunity Fund	Yes (loan fund)	Statewide	Yes — accepts ITIN	Term $5k–$250k	No minimum FICO (holistic); ≥12 months in business ; ~$50k+ annual sales ; own ≥20%
MoFi (Montana-based regional)	Yes (loan fund)	Statewide — has a WY "Path to Bankability" program	Unverified — call to confirm	$1k–$1M	Alternative/relationship underwriting for "nearly bankable" borrowers; FICO/time-in-business not published
Wind River Development Fund (the only in-state CDFI)	Yes (Native loan fund)	On/near Wind River Reservation (Fremont & Hot Springs counties)	Unverified — call to confirm	$1k–$400k	Live on/near the reservation (geography is the gate); Native-priority but limited funds for non-Native locals ; case-by-case
Kiva U.S. (not a CDFI)	No	National	Generally yes (no SSN required)	$1k–$15k, 0% interest	"Social underwriting" — recruit community lenders; no FICO minimum; 18+, US business
Wyoming Women's Business Center (not a CDFI)	No	Statewide	Unverified (much capital is SBA → likely blocked; USDA RMAP capital may be more flexible)	$500–$50k	WY resident/operating; open to any owner despite the name; great technical-assistance resource

Not a fit (housing/community-facility focus, not ITIN small-business): NewWest Community Capital, Impact Development Fund. Ruled out: Colorado Enterprise Fund (has a great $25k ITIN loan at 2.99% — but Colorado only, does not lend into WY), RMMFI (Denver only), Mountain Plains Equity Group (LIHTC housing syndicator, not a lender).

Wyoming action plan

1. Lead with DreamSpring — the only lender that is both clearly ITIN-friendly and explicitly serves Wyoming, with a term loan and a line of credit. Use its non-SBA products.
2. Apply to Accion Opportunity Fund in parallel if you have ≥12 months operating and ~$50k+ sales.
3. Call MoFi and Wind River Development Fund to confirm ITIN policy — both are CDFIs actively lending in WY (WRDF if you're on/near the reservation).
4. Use Kiva as a 0%, ITIN-friendly supplement for smaller amounts.
5. Treat the Wyoming Women's Business Center + Wyoming SBDC as technical-assistance resources; skip SBA-funded products while ITIN-only.

PART 2 — CALIFORNIA

California has dozens of certified CDFIs and the deepest ITIN-lending ecosystem of the four states. Use the CAMEO Network (cameonetwork.org/members) to find more.

PART 3 — NEW YORK

New York (especially NYC) has a dense CDFI network plus an aggregated city program. The clearest ITIN "yes" comes from the CDFI credit unions.

Name	CDFI type	ITIN business loan/LOC?	Products / amounts	Key approval requirements	Region

Two aggregated "front doors" worth knowing: - NYC Small Business Opportunity Fund — up to $250k at ~4%, no minimum credit score, deployed via CDFI partners (Accompany, Ascendus, BOC, Harlem Entrepreneurial Fund, NDC, Pursuit, Renaissance, TruFund). Confirm intake has reopened and confirm ITIN with the specific lender. - Inclusiv Business Forward NY — $50k–$500k via CDFI credit unions including the two ITIN-friendly standouts above.

New York bottom line: Neighborhood Trust FCU and LES People's FCU are the clearest ITIN business lenders (both offer lines of credit, including for startups). Accion Opportunity Fund is the clearest ITIN loan fund. Grameen also builds credit (reports to Experian/Equifax). Avoid HFLS (citizen/LPR gate).

PART 4 — TEXAS

Texas has a strong microlending ecosystem anchored by the legacy Accion network (now LiftFund and DreamSpring), plus 0% municipal programs.

Name	CDFI type	ITIN business loan/ LOC?	Products / amounts	Key approval requirements	Region
LiftFund	Loan fund	Yes — application takes "SSN or ITIN" (legacy Accion)	$500–$1M ; micro, term; 0% city programs	FICO ~550 floor (whole-picture); coaching; serves startups	TX + 15 states
DreamSpring	Loan fund	Yes — explicit "SSN or ITIN"	Term → larger; $200 Credit Builder @ 0% ; uncollateralized <$20k if 650+	Ideal FICO ~640; <600 routed to Credit Builder; 18+	TX + AZ/CO/ NV/NM

0% APR municipal programs (LiftFund): San Antonio (CoSA Zero Loan, $500–$100k), Fort Worth (interest buy-down, up to $100k), McAllen — for businesses in/relocating to those city limits.

Texas bottom line: LiftFund, DreamSpring, and Accion Opportunity Fund are the clearest ITIN-friendly business lenders; PeopleFund is the standout for a true line of credit (verify ITIN). Grameen builds credit (Experian/Equifax). Lowest credit bars: Grameen (none) → LiftFund (~550) → BCL (~575) → PeopleFund (~600) → DreamSpring (~640, or Credit Builder below 600).

PART 5 — Multi-State Lenders That Cover All Four (and the Wyoming overlap)

Lender	WY	CA	NY	TX	ITIN?	Notes
DreamSpring	-	-	-	-	Explicit SSN/ ITIN	Term + Power LOC; the only one of these that covers WY and offers a line of credit
Accion Opportunity Fund	x	-	-	-	Accepts ITIN	The single best four-state overlap; ~12 mo + ~$50k sales
Ascendus					Likely (unverified)	~49 states; FICO 575+
Kiva U.S. (not a CDFI)					No SSN required	0%, ≤$15k, social underwriting
Grameen America					(women, group)	No WY presence; reports to Experian/Equifax

Only two lenders cleanly cover all of WY + CA + NY + TX with documented ITIN acceptance: Accion Opportunity Fund (all four) and Kiva (all four, but small-dollar). DreamSpring covers WY/CA/TX (not NY).

Important Caveats & Methodology

- Point-in-time, June 2026. CDFI service areas, ITIN policies, capital availability, and product terms change frequently — and 2026 policy is shifting fast. Confirm everything by phone before applying.
- "CDFI certified" should be verified. Several smaller orgs labeled CDFIs (JFLA, ICA Fund, Cal Coastal, Project Enterprise) could not be independently confirmed on the CDFI Fund list via these searches — check `cdififund.gov`. Amalgamated Bank and ICBC USA are NOT CDFIs and were excluded.
- ITIN acceptance for the BUSINESS product specifically is the key gap. Explicitly confirmed: DreamSpring, Accion Opportunity Fund, Working Solutions, Beneficial State Bank, MEDA, JFLA, LiftFund, Neighborhood Trust FCU, LES People's FCU, Mission Asset Fund. Likely but unverified: MoFi, Wind River Development Fund, Accompany Capital, Grameen, Ascendus, Renaissance, Brooklyn Coop, Pan American, PeopleFund, BCL, Communities Unlimited.
- Bureau pull/report data is almost entirely unpublished for these lenders — most cells are unverified. Known reporters: Grameen America (Experian/Equifax) and Mission Asset Fund (all 3 consumer bureaus); DreamSpring's Credit Builder product reports to build credit.
- WebFetch was blocked (HTTP 403) on nearly every lender and government page. Findings rest on search-result snippets cross-referenced with reputable third parties (CDFI Fund, OFN, Inclusiv, Native CDFI Network, CDFI Coalition, NerdWallet, Bankrate, LendingTree, NYC SBS) and are flagged where unverified.
- The "Community Capital Wyoming" entity appears to be a search-engine fabrication — no verifiable record exists.
- Not legal or financial advice. Confirm current eligibility directly with each lender and a qualified advisor.
